

18 Volunteer Gardening Events have opened up the 5 acre cemetery's pathways, making graves accessible both to relatives and visitors

---

Our first gardening day in spring 2014 cleared the overgrown main driveway allowing access for deliveries of materials and equipment for wall renovation.

Overgrown areas preventing access to significant graves have been cut back, but care has been taken to leave sufficient dense undergrowth for wildlife throughout the

